

46. Acrimony

(n.) bitterness, discord

(Though they vowed that no girl would ever come between them, Biff and Trevor could not keep acrimony from overwhelming their friendship after they both fell in love with the lovely Teresa.)

Matrimony to Acrimony

DO NOW:

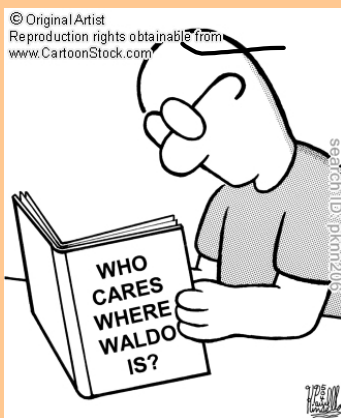

1. Take out HW Questions

Aug 17-2:25 PM

47. antipathy to feel

against (n.) a strong dislike, repugnance

(I know you love me, but because you are a liar and a thief, I feel nothing but antipathy for you.)

DO NOW: Take out HW questions

Aug 17-2:31 PM

48. Capricious - (adj.) subject to whim, fickle, unpredictable

(The young girl's capricious tendencies made it difficult for her to focus on achieving her goals.)

Aug 17-2:31 PM

49 Slovenly - adjective - habitually dirty and unkempt;

Quiz Hint: #6 is NOT "D"

Sep 19-3:14 PM

50. CursoryDO NOW: Take out Pre-Writing for Body 1(adj.)* hasty and without attention to detail*(Late for the meeting, she cast a cursory glance at the agenda.)You may curse when you're being cursory b/c you speak too quickly without thinking*

Aug 17-2:31 PM

51. Fallacy - noun - a commonly held misconception; false or mistaken idea*It's a fallacy that starving yourself makes you lose weight. It actually slows down your metabolism.Fallacy = False
(like Tyra's hair - it's a fallacy that it's her real hair)

Sep 30-12:49 PM

52. Egregious - (adj.) extremely bad

(The student who threw sloppy joes across the cafeteria was punished for his egregious behavior.)

DO NOW:

Take out HW Questions and
copy down HW

Aug 17-2:29 PM

53. feral

(adj.) wild, savage

(That beast looks so feral that I would fear being alone with it.)

Aug 17-2:48 PM

54. Impregnable - adjective - 1.

(of a fortified position) unable to be captured or broken into.

Someone who can't be conquered
"an impregnable wall of solid sandstone"

Synonyms: invulnerable, impenetrable, unassailable, secure, strong

The impregnable walled city was impossible to conquer.

Apr 2-7:55 AM

55. Capitulate

(v.) cede; surrender; cease to resist an opponent or an unwelcome demand;

"the patriots had to capitulate to the enemy forces"

Capitulate

"Ok! I capitulate! I ate the last cheeseburger. Now please stop pointing at me!"

*Remind me to give you a heads up about the reading tonight.

Aug 17-2:32 PM

56. Pragmatic - adj. - practical

High heels may look nice, but they're not pragmatic if it's snowing!

Oct 3-4:58 PM

57. Pacifist - noun - someone opposed to conflict or war;
peacemaker

The pacifists camped outside the embassy protesting the war.

Mnemonic: A pacifier brings peace to a screaming baby.

Sep 30-1:02 PM

58. impetuous

(adj.) rash; hastily done

(Hilda's hasty slaying of the king was an impetuous, thoughtless action.)

My Website: <http://dowlingmurphy.weebly.com/>

Aug 17-2:49 PM

59. impudent

(adj.) casually rude, insolent, impertinent

(The impudent young man looked the princess up and down and told her she was hot even though she hadn't asked him.)

Aug 17-2:49 PM

60. pariah .

(n.) an outcast

(Following the discovery of his plagiarism, Professor Hurley was made a pariah in all academic circles.)

#24:
Peter = Bancini
#26 ≠ ~~①~~

Aug 17-2:51 PM